

No setbacks, only move forwards

When living a spiritually motivated life, what appear to be setbacks to the mortal mind, are but opportunities to move forward with the divine Mind.

With divine Mind, there are no limits to how much good you can demonstrate in your life, for God is an unending source of abundance, health, and love.

With Mind, financial lack does not limit how much supply you can still demonstrate.

With Mind, disease does not limit your ability to get healthy and stay healthy.

With Mind, conflict does not mark the end of something precious in your life, but a call to love more and move forward to something better.

With Mind, there is no such thing as a setback.

What the mortal mind labels a setback is a call for thought to rise higher and see greater possibilities with God. “With God all things are possible” (Matt. 19:26).

If you want to make rapid progress, do not waste any time indulging the belief that you have been setback. God is never setback! And when working with God, you will never be setback either.

Look for opportunities to move forward stronger and better than ever before. Be productive. Prove that you have all the help you need from above.

Wait no longer. Get moving!
