

CHRIST-CENTERED INSIGHTS ON THE CORONAVIRUS

Alliance pastor and physician Stephen Ko explains how Christians can be the hands and feet of Christ without fear while taking necessary precautions.

Stephen Ko, senior pastor of New York Chinese Alliance Church in New York City and former medical officer for the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, offers Christ-centered insights on dealing with the coronavirus in a recent Christian Medical & Dental Associations podcast.

Also, be sure to read Stephen's recent Christianity Today article, "Coronavirus Fears Mean We Need More Communion, Not Less."

Previous

Next

Related Stories

Strength in Weakness April 8, 2020

CARES Act Information for Alliance Churches April 7, 2020

We've All Been Exposed March 25, 2020

The Sacrifice of Social Distancing March 24, 2020

An Ancient Response to a Modern Virus February 21, 2020

---